CITY OF BANGOR.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight.

AN ORDINANCE to establish a High School for Girls in the city of Bangor.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bangor, in Common Council assembled, That there be and hereby is established in said city, a High School for the education of Girls, in which shall be taught by a Master Classical Literature, the Sciences usually taught in Academies; and such other studies as may from time to time be designated by the City Council or Superintending School Committee. And said School shall be open for the admission of all girls whose parents, masters or guardians reside within the limits of the city, and who shall be found qualified according to the rules which may from time to time be established regulating such admission.

Sec. 2. Be it further ordained, That said High School shall be under the care and direction of the Superintending School Committee of said city, who shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to establish rules and regulations respecting the age and qualifications requisite for admission to said High School, the studies to be therein taught, the government thereof, and such other rules and regulations as will in their opinion promote the objects of the Institution. But such rules and regulations shall at all times be subject to revision, alterations, or repeal by the City Council.

CITY OF BANGOR.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, April 13, 1838.

WHEREAS the Legislature has made it the duty of the City of Bangor to provide and keep in repair School Houses for the several School districts within its limits, and has transferred all power to raise money for those purposes from said districts to the city; and whereas the several school districts, with the exception of district No. 2, hold their real and personal estate in their own names, Therefore

Resolved, That the real and personal estate of said school districts ought to be transferred to, and become the property of, the city.

Resolved, That it is improper and inexpedient to raise money for erecting, repairing, remodeling or purchasing school houses, or utensils for said district, until said districts respectively have in a proper and legal manner transferred to the city all their right, title and interest in and to all real and personal estate now belonging to said school districts.

Read and passed, and ordered to be published in the papers that do the advertising for the city; sent down for concurrence.

PROSPECTUS OF THE BOSTON MUSICAL GAZETTE

This Journal will be devoted especially to the subject of Music, containing the Musical History, Biographical Sketches of eminent Composers and performers impartial Reviews of Musical Works, an account of Oratorios, Concerts, Musical Societies, Academies and Schools, with their various merits, progress, &c. Also, occasional hints and observations on the kindred arts, and matters of taste and general literature, with appropriate Poetical effusions. Each number will likewise contain more or less sacred or secular music, arranged with appropriate accompaniments.

The inhabitants of New England may well be denominated a musical people. And it is thought that a periodical of the above description, if well conducted, would meet with at least a competent support. It is agreed on all hands, we believe, that attention to the art of music was never so great in our country, as at the present day; yet we shall not pretend that science or taste keeps pace with the practice.

A writer in a respectable Journal recently observed, "Our City takes the lead of all others in the Union, both in devotion to Music, and in the Institutions for its perpetuation and improvement." If this be an acknowledged truth, we deem it a circumstance no little favorable to our design.

It is well known that in Boston Music engages the special attention of both the old and young; and it has been thought proper to introduce it, as a regular branch of education, into some of our public schools, as well as many private seminaries. Surely, then, there is a reasonable expectation that our plan may succeed, and a belief that it could never have commenced more opportunely.

The editorial department will be conducted by B. Brown, Esq. who has the pleasure to state that the following, among other talented gentlemen, will occasionally contribute to its pages; Lowell Mason, G. J. Webb, T. Comer, N. Mitchell, J. S. Dwight, T. Power, J. R. Parker.

The work will be published every other Wednesday, in the quarto form, of 8 pages to each number, on good type and fine paper, at Three Dollars, per annum, payable in advance.

THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1838.

WELL DONE OXFORD!

We received by the Steamer Bangor, which arrived last evening, the following returns of votes for Representative to Congress in Oxford Congressional District. Parris, the Tory candidate, is in the minority by 191 votes in the [illegible] towns which gave Parks, last September, a majority of 441 votes.

Here, in the very citadel of VAN BURENISM, is a nett WHIG GAIN OF SIX HUNDRED AND THIRTY TWO VOTES!!! Let the election go as it may this time, we have proof enough that the Whigs of Oxford will ere long plant their standard upon that old tower of toryism.

We would call the particular attention of our readers to the interesting report which we publish to-day from the Committee appointed by the board of Internal Improvements.

The State of Maine has at last commenced in earnest the true policy in relation to her settling lands. Had the same spirit prevailed in the Councils of our State from the period of its separation from Massachusetts, Maine would now have been very far in advance of her present position, in population, wealth and power. It is sincerely regretted by every friend to the true interests of the State that the base and destructive spirit of party prejudice should have found its way into our Legislature last winter, to the defeat of one of the best and most popular measures ever devised to promote the prosperity of the State. We refer to the vote in the Senate on the bill for the continuation of the Aroostic road. It had passed the House by a large majority and no doubt was entertained that it would become a law. But the Tories in the Senate were determined, that, if they could prevent it, no measure demanded by the wants and wishes of the people should be effected by a Whig Administration. Accordingly, when the bill came up for their concurrence, it was rejected by a strict party vote. In this instance they cannot plead ignorance of public opinion or of the true policy of the State. On the contrary, the real causes of their hostility to this measure, are to be found in the very conviction which they had of its importance, and in their settled purpose that no recommendation of Gov. Kent, though affecting the vital interests of the State, should receive the aid of their votes. But this weak and dishonest attempt, to deprive the State Administration of the power and the credit of serving the People, will yet recoil upon the offenders. The honest and intelligent voters of Penobscot County, at least, understand too well the interests of this section of the State, to send again into the Senate the men who were guilty of sacrificing those interests to the despicable gratification of party malice. This road must be made, and another year will not pass round before thousands of men will be actively employed in opening an avenue to the Genessee region of Maine.

It is surprising that the people of other States, and of the western part of our own, are so slow to believe the accounts given of this valuable Territory. The most wonderful stories about western lands, coming, often, from very incompetent judges, are easily credited and circulated with gross exaggerations. But tell them of the fertility of the Aroostic lands and it surpasses their comprehension. Fortunately, however, we have at last obtained a Geological report, which establishes beyond all doubt, the vast resources and immense value of the North Eastern section of our State. But we expect yet more definite and accurate information of a practical kind, from the survey which is about to be made under the direction of our able Land Agent, by authority of the Board of Internal Improvements. Mr. Holmes, the gentleman appointed for that purpose, possesses in an eminent degree the knowledge, judgment and experience requisite for a correct agricultural survey and exploration, of our valuable lands in the vicinity of the Aroostock.

The Bangor Sacred Music society will give a Concert this evening, for the benefit of their Organist, MRS. MALLETT. We hope that our citizens, who are always ready to patronize merit, will show their appreciation of musical [illegible] and skill by giving her a full house.

It is worthy of notice that so judicious and popular have been all the measures of policy recommended by Gov. Kent, that the Tories [illegible] of them openly and above-board. We hear, however, that they are electioneering verbally in [illegible] quarters, by accusing Gov. Kent's administration of extravagance, and wasting the public funds, so that there [illegible] to pay the [illegible] bounty and the [illegible] in a verbal answer to all this. [illegible] Gov. Kent [illegible] could not [illegible] money, and has [illegible] to [illegible] all the deposits [illegible] the Treasury, though [illegible] the [illegible] which [illegible] by the Legislature. STATE OF MAINE.

IN BOARD OF INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS,
April 24, 1838.

The Committee appointed to report to this Board, what section of the State it would be most beneficial to have explored and examined, the ensuing season, and also a plan of operations, ask leave to REPORT.

That after due examination of the subject committed to them, they are unanimously of opinion, that it will be for the best interests of the State, to direct the operations of this board for the ensuing year, generally to the North Eastern section of our public domain in the vicinity of the Aroostook river. From an inspection of the map, it will be seen that there is an extent of country about sixty miles square on the Aroostook waters, containing about one hundred townships of land owned by Maine and Massachusetts.

This region is sufficient to form four counties, each equal in territory to the county of York or of Kennebec, presenting equal, if not greater advantages for the support of a large population, than can be found in any other part of the State, upon the same extent of territory.

From the recent exploration of Dr. Jackson, it is known that all that region in this part of the State, bordering upon the St. John and its tributaries, is of a secondary formation, that its soil is warm, rich and free from stones, that it is highly charged with lime from the decomposition of limestone ledges, and that it presents uncommon advantages for agriculture, particularly for the growth of wheat.

The road laid out by Maine and Massachusetts from the Penobscot to the Aroostook will probably be completed in the course of two years. With the facilities of this road and under the favorable advantages of the new land law, passed at the last session of our Legislature, it is believed that if the capabilities of this country for settlement and agricultural resources can be brought home to the knowledge of the people of this State and generally of New England, that a current of immigration would soon set in this direction, and fill up the fertile valley of the Aroostook with a hardy and vigorous population. It is well known that there is a constant drain of population from all the New England States to the Western Country. It should be our aim to turn hitherward this surplus population and invite them to a settlement upon our unoccupied lands.

Considering the great extent of our seaboard and the large amount of capital invested in commerce and in lumbering operations, it seems very desirable to increase the amount of our agricultural products, so as to sustain our commercial operations upon the seaboard, and our lumbering business upon the rivers, and save them the expenses and commissions incident upon procuring so many supplies, as they have to procure, from abroad.

It is the wisest policy of the State to promote by all judicious means, the settlement of the public lands. An increase of population not only gives strength to the State from an increase to the number of its defenders within her borders, but adds weight and character to her influence in the federal Government. The right arm of her strength will always be found in that portion of the population who till the soil, and experience has ever shown, that the virtue, the prosperity and the stability of a community depends essentially upon those whose interests are identified with the soil, and who from their occupations are daily trained to habits of economy and industry. In the opinion of your committee, therefore, it will be highly advantageous to have a thorough exploration of the Aroostook country, this season, [illegible] settlement, and agricultural capabilities. Let an examination be made of all the townships situate on that river and its tributaries; an estimate made of the amount of settling land, its particular quality and situation, the growth of the soil, the geology of the country, the amount of water power, the facilities for boating and driving lumber and for making roads, and in fact of all particulars which may be interesting to those who feel desirous of making settlement in this part of the State.

Let there be a fair report drawn up from an actual exploration of this kind, and published under the authority of this board, and it is believed that the public attention would be instantly drawn to this quarter, and would lead to the most beneficial results.

The Aroostook river is known to be separated from the Penobscot and Fish rivers only by portages, and it would be desirable to examine these portages in reference to a water communication from the Penobscot to the St. John's rivers. It is believed that this exploration and survey can be done at no great expense, as almost every township can be visited by water either in a batteau or canoe.

Your Committee would therefore recommend that an exploration and survey be made of the Aroostook river and the public lands situated on the same, the ensuing year by some suitable person under the direction of one of the members of this board.

Your committee also recommend an exploration and survey of the East Machias river in the county of Washington. This river extends about fifty miles into the interior, and waters about twelve townships of land.

There is a considerable fall near its mouth and two or three others some distance above; with these interruptions, this river is boatable nearly to its source.

With a little labor, this river can be connected with the Schoodic lakes, which again can be connected with the Penobscot waters, and so form an extended line of interior water communication.

The inhabitants living near this river in Washington County, have for a long time past contemplated canalling these falls and so opening a water communication into the interior, and feel very desirous to have this river surveyed and an estimate made by some scientific person of the probable cost of such improvements. Your committee would therefore recommend an exploration and survey of the East Machias river under the direction and superintendence of one of the members of this board.

IN BOARD OF INT. IMPROVEMENTS,
April 24th, 1838.

Read and accepted.
ATTEST: SAM'L P. BENSON,
Secretary.

We understand that the Governor and Council, in accordance with the above report, have selected Doct. Ezekiel Holmes, well known by the people of the State as the editor of the Maine Farmer, to make the exploration and survey, and that he will proceed to the Aroostic in a few days. Dr. Holmes is a practical, as well as a scientific man, and will doubtless make a report, which will enable the people of the State [illegible] to examine [illegible] upon the agricultural capabilities [illegible].

We hear quite a number of young men who have it in contemplation to emigrate to that part of the State, and are only restrained from going immediately by the want of a road to get there, and by want of a more accurate knowledge of the country.

The following appeal to the Whigs of the Union will meet with a response from every [illegible] victories over [illegible] which during the past year it has been our pride and our pleasure to record, not one has been received by the Whigs of Maine with more enthusiasm than that of Baltimore. It is another confirmation of the encouraging truth that even in the strong holds of the Administration there is a redeeming spirit of Patriotism which is ever ready to detect and denounce treachery to the country, to burst the fetters of party and to spring forward to the defence of the Constitution against the machinations of its adversaries. Baltimore has done nobly. The 25th of April 1838, will long be remembered as the day on which that great and growing city was enrolled under the banner of American policy and Whig principles. Let the cheering voice of Welcome reach her from the remotest ranks of the Whig army, and at the next roll call she will answer "Here."

BALTIMORE. The editor of the Baltimore Patriot in some spirited remarks on the election of Mr. Kennedy, thus appeals to the Whigs of the country:

"We appeal to the figures there set forth which cannot exagerate or falsify, for the demonstration of this glorious triumph over destructiveism. And thus referring—thus appealing, we put the question to our brethren throughout a suffering land, whether the Whigs of Baltimore do not deserve well of their country? In going forth to the contest, in support of tried measures of prosperity, and against misrule and selfish experiment, have they not borne themselves as true men? The Whigs and other true patriots of the Union turned to them with anxious and imploring eyes that they might shake off the trammels that heretofore have bound them and join the popular array against "scheeming oppression. Have they not answered that appeal? With the authorised accounts of yesterday's work before them to guide their judgment on this behalf—let the Whigs of the Union respond to these questions."

THE CONGRESSIONAL CANVASS IN MISSISSIPPI.

At the latest dates from Mississippi, the Congressional canvass in that State was proceeding with great spirit. Prentiss and Word were stumping it through the State. The loco foco candidates, were Claiborne, one of the late squatters, and a certain Gen. Davis, who has been substituted in the place of Gholson.

Claiborne keeps out of the way; and the report is, that he is afraid to encounter Prentiss. This is highly probable. It will be recollected that Prentiss no sooner reached Washington, than Claiborne was seized with a desperate illness, which stuck to him till Prentiss left the city. He then suddenly recovered and started for home. But the idea of meeting Prentiss on the stump has probably brought on a relapse of his old disorder.

Gholson, who declined being a candidate, nominally, on account of his ill health, but really, because he knew he could not be elected, seems to have grown suddenly well, and is traversing the State as a sort of substitute for Claiborne.

Davis, who run in the place of Gholson, seems to be rather a singular character. It is but two years since he moved into the [illegible]. However, he claims to be an old citizen, because in the year 1813, as one of the Tennessee volunteers, he marched into the State to protect it from the Indians!

On the 2d of April he was to address the citizens in a stump speech at Gallatin. Just before the oration began, Prentiss unexpectedly arrived upon the ground. With great politeness Gen. Davis insisted that Prentiss should address the people first. He had no idea of being answered in that spirit of keen and witty retort for which Prentiss is famous. In the course of his speech, Prentiss asserted that at the election held in July, the members were elected only for the extra session, and that such was the understanding of the people. A single voice cried out, no! Well, said Prentiss we will put it to vote, and see what the company think about it. It was put to vote accordingly, and there were only two persons present who dissented from Prentiss's position!

Gen. Davis, whenever he speaks, is said to make a terrible slaughter of the people's English. Gholson did the same in his speeches in the House. The following queries propounded to Davis in a Mississippi paper, will give some idea of his respect for the rules of grammar.

1st. AM Mississippi entitled to representation in the Congress of the United States?

2nd. AM we not deprived of that right by a resolution of the House of Representatives?

3rd. AM it not now full time that Mississippi should bring to the remembrance of that House that she ARE a sovereign State, not to be swindled out of her rights by the hydra of corruption itself.

4th. AM the time ARRIV when you and other democrats can, with impunity, agitate people's minds, and disturb their security by the hideous discussion of the subject of Abolition? [Atlas.

THE GLOBE. Blair says "there are one hundred millions of gold in the country, and that is relief."

Then why do we not feel this relief? Why are our merchants more cramped than ever? Why are our mechanics and laborers poorer than ever? It won't do, Mr. Blair; make every house of gold, and furnish every chamber with silver tables and bedsteads, and if we have not credit we must still starve. Out upon your philosophy a child could teach you, and have wisdom enough left to supply Van Buren and the whole cabinet. [N. Y. Whig.

The Globe, the official organ of the Executive Government, is out upon the Whigs of New York for rejoicing in the arrival of two steam vessels from over sea. An event almost worthy, for its universal importance and far-reaching consequences, to be classed with the voyage of Columbus, is sought to be degraded by the Government official into the worthless topic of mere party joy. What a heart and what a head must curse the wretched being who can thus distort such a magnificent occurrence. [N. Y. American.]

On the Van Buren ticket yesterday was emblazoned in large letters NO REGISTRY LAW, gentlemen you now have the voice of the People. Are ye satisfied?

NEW YORK MARKETS.

This has been a very busy week at the Stock Exchange, and more business has been done than in any previous week for the last eleven months, at a large advance on the current prices of last week. The recent heavy importations of specie, and the gradual resumption of specie payments, by the City Banks, have tended greatly to restore confidence in all public securities. Several of the Banks have already declared handsome dividends, the others will no doubt declare in a few days, and the payment of these in the course of the next month, on eighteen millions of dollars, will give great relief to the community. In the mercantile markets great activity has prevailed, and a large amount of business has been transacted. On a comparison of the prices obtained at the Board of Brokers on Friday last with those of yesterday, we find that the advance on the United States Bank has been 4 per cent; Mechanics 7; Phenix 4; Commercial 3; Delaware and Hudson Canal, 14; Farmers Trust 7 1-4; Mechanics Insurance 7 1-2; Patterson Rail Road 10, on long time; Harlem 7, Stonington 5; Boston and Providence 4 1-2; Utica and Schenectady 4; and Long Island 4. The Tradesmen's Bank has declared a dividend of 8 per cent, payable on the 1st of May. Treasury Notes 1 4 a 1-2 discount. The notes of the Country Banks in this State are no longer received in deposite at the Manhattan; the other City Banks will refuse them after the 16th May, unless provision be made for their daily redemption in this city.

The wholesale grocers are getting up a banking association among themselves, with a capital of half a million dollars, to go into operation under the General Banking law. A good portion of the capital has been subscribed, and there can be little doubt that the whole will be taken up in a few days.

Disaster at Sea. The Norfolk Beacon of April 20th says, "The ship Cabot, of N. Y. Captain Sumner, from Charlestown bound to Havre, and schooner Leo of Wareham, captain Charles Cousins, from New York, bound to Port au Prince, came in contact on Friday night last, being very dark, by which the schooner, a fine vessel of her class, of 152 tons burthen, copper fastened, was so materially damaged, as to compell her crew to abandoned her and go on board the Cabot, all of whom have arrived here in safety. The ship also sustained much damage."

DUELLING ANECDOTES. The American Magazine for April, has a chapter on duelling, in which the following anecdotes are related:

Lord Brudenell ran away with a married lady, who was afterwards divorced, and he married her, but not receiving, as he expected, a challenge from her first husband, he wrote him a note as follows: "Sir Having done you the greatest injury that one man can do another, I think it incumbent upon me to offer you the satisfaction which one gentleman owes to another in such circumstances." The reply was this: "My Lord, in taking off my hands a woman who has proved herself a wretch, you have done me the greatest favor that one man can do another, and I think it incumbent on me to offer you the acknowledgments which one gentlemen owes to another in such circumstances."

The once notorious Baron Von Hoffman lost a letter of introduction to a Mr J. R., who declined to take his word as evidence of his rank, and did not invite him to dinner. The Baron sent him a challenge, which being left unceremoniously at the door, Mrs R. opened it, and immediately replied to it as follows: "Sir Your note is received. My husband will not have any thing to do with you under any circumstances; but whenever you produce official proof that you have been aid-de camp to Prince Blucher, as you say, I will fight a duel with you myself. MARY R."

But the last and best anecdote if true is related of a Boston bachelor Mr. A. who ten years ago challenged Mr. B. a married man with one child, who replied that the conditions were not equal, that he must necessarily put more to risk with his life than the other, and he declined. A year afterwards he received another challenge from Mr. A who stated that he had now a wife and child, and he supposed therefore the objection of Mr B. was no longer valid. Mr B. replied that he now had two children, consequently the inequality still subsisted. The next year Mr. renewed his challenge, having then two children also, but his adversary had three. The matter is not yet settled the "responsibilities" being six to seven, and the challenge yearly renewed.

Absence of Mind. A tall man in Virginia, having held a conversation with another person of inferior dimensions, made a low bow to his cane which stood in one corner, and seizing his friend by the scalp walked off with him.

Another. A drunkard being visited by a temperance agent just as he was about to take down his morning's bitters, kicked the decanter out of doors, and swallowed the agent.

IT will be recollected that more than two yea since, the Trustees of this Institution com menced, through their agent, to solicit benefa tions in its behalf; with the view as then mad known, 1st, to furnish the community, at moderate expense, facilities of a thorough, sy tematic, and well balanced education. 2d, t provide a Seminary for teachers of commo schools, and 3d, to excite a more general an deeper interest in favor of female education.
Of the result of their efforts the public ar also to some extent, informed. The Board hav now in their employment SEVEN TEACHERS, fou gentlemen and three ladies, all of whom are ex perienced in their profession. They have pro vided, in the erection of a large and commodi ous brick edifice for a female Academy an Boarding House, accommodations for one hun dred pupils, at an expense of about $15,000.
Connected with the institution is now,
somewhat extensive Philosophical and Chemi cal apparatus; also a small library and a cabinet of minerals. For the year ending August 37
the whole number of students was two hundre and sixty-five. For the current year the pro portionate number is much larger.
Provision is made for giving instruction, here after, with special regard to Civil Engineering Practical Mathematics, &c. Mr. Robert Doug lass is appointed to superintend this departmen and will give to it his entire attention. Mr. D has devoted several years to these studies, an comes to us very highly recommended.
The branches of study pursued in the High est Teacher's department of this Institution with the exception of Ancient Languages, ar substantially what are taught in the colleges o
our country.
The study of Ancient Languages is pursued so far only as is required of a young gentlema to prepare for admission to College. To thi extent this branch of study receives particula attention.
The chambers in the Ladies Seminary ar furnished each with a bed and other articles ne cessary for occupancy, except bedding an napkins. The bedding and napkins young la dies furnish for themselves. Two ladies occupy a room.
This Department of the institution is organ ized as near as the case admits, on the plan of well regulated family. Young ladies and th female teachers live in the same building. A constant supervision is exercised on the part o teachers, to whom pupils have access at a times for advice and counsel.
The expense of a young lady for a term in cluding board, room, rent, washing, fuel, ligh and tuition is $25, one half of which is require in advance.
Young gentlemen are furished with the meals and washing in the institution at a charg of $1,33 1-3 per week, and are accommodate with rooms in the village for a reasonable charge
Their dining hall is entirely separted from th of the ladies.
Board can be had in the best families for $1,7

PENMANSHIP,

OR THE ART OF SWIFT WRITING.

Before any thing is effected we think it impossible, but when it is done, we stare, and wonder it was not done before.—BACON.

THE American Standard System of Writing which combines elegance of freedom and rapidity of execution, taught in TWELVE LESSONS of one hour each, by Mr Aiken, Finishing Writing Master and Teacher of Stenography.

Mr Aiken, late from Boston where he has received the greatest confidence and success, respectfully announces his intention of remaining in this city for three weeks only to practice his ingenious and unerring method of Writing, however tremulous and confirmed may be the chirography of persons of all ages, from 8 to 60, and of every capacity, he will substitute a style of Writing the most celebrated and popular both in England and America.

☞ FRANKFORT BANK. ☜

THE public are hereby informed that we have ceased to redeem the bills of the Frankfort Bank at the Suffolk Bank, and shall hereafter redeem them either in specie, or in current bills of other Banks, at our own counter. In dissolving this connexion with the association of Banks, in Boston, a system of redemption in its effects highly injurious and inconvenient to the public, and fraught with danger and hazard in the transmission of funds from the counters of our own Banks, the only proper and safe place of resumption, it is proper that the public should know the precise and correct amount of our bills now in circulation. That amount is but $10,128, and the immediate funds of the Bank are amply sufficient to meet promptly all its circulation and individual deposites, and we have no hesitation in saying that the Stockholders in this Bank are equal, at least, in point of individual responsibility and permanent safety, to those of any other Banking institution in the State.

Bills of all the Banks in Maine that have discontinued the Suffolk arrangement, and promptly redeem their bills at their own counters when presented, either in specie or current bills of other Banks, will be received, at par at this Bank, either on deposit or in payment for dues to this Bank.

LAFAYETTE BANK.

BANGOR, April 16, 1838.

THE public are hereby informed that this Bank has bills in circulation to the amount of $10,148 and no more and our whole available means bear a greater proportion to our whole liabilities than has heretofore been usual with this and other banks. We therefore hope no holders of our bills will part with them at a discount. The late course of the Suffolk Bank in ceasing to redeem our bills is approved by us. The Suffolk system so far as this State is concerned, we think is injurious to the Banks and the public, and should be abandoned.

ASSESSORS NOTICE.

CITY OF BANGOR.

THE undersigned, Assessors for the City of Bangor hereby give notice to the inhabitants of said city, and others liable to be assessed for property therein, that we shall be in session at our office in the City Hall on the 1st, 2d and 3d days of May next for the purpose of receiving true and perfect lists of their polls and of all their estate, both real and personal, of which they may be in possession on the first day of May next, excepting such, only, as is by law exempted from taxation.

And the said inhabitants and others, owners of property in said city, are hereby notified and warned to make, sign and bring in to us such true and perfect lists on one of said days and to be prepared if required, to substantiate the same by oath or affirmation. A strict and prompt compliance by each and every person concerned, is indispensably necessary to an equitable and seasonable assessment of our taxes. And for the benefit of all we subjoin some extracts from the law.

"If any person or persons shall not bring in such list, he, she or they so neglecting or refusing shall not be admitted to make application to the Court of Sessions for any abatements, unless they shall make it appear to said Court that it was not in their power to furnish such list at the time appointed for that purpose." "When Assessors continue to assess any real estate to the person to whom it was last assessed, said assessment shall be valid, notwithstanding the ownership or occupancy of such estate may have been changed, unless previous notice be given by the owner or occupant to one of the Assessors, stating when he ceased to be the owner or occupant and the name of the person to whom such estate was transferred or surrendered." "And any tenant in common or joint tenant of a freehold or other estate real or personal may be considered the sole owner for the purpose of taxation, unless he shall make known to the Assessors the amount and kind of interest he has in such estate."

To the Hon the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled,

THE undersigned beg leave to represent that a Boom from Ayer's Island, at Stillwater, to extend up and across the main Penobscot River through a portion of Ayer's Falls to the eastern shore would greatly accommodate and advantage the Mills and those interested in the manufacture of Lumber at that place, and in case of injury to the boom above or the escape of logs or other lumber, would afford to the owners and others great facilities in the preservation of their property and save to the community a large amount of property which now annually passes down said river into tide waters, or below the mills where they can be safely and advantageously manufactured

Wherefore we pray your hon body to grant us an Act of Incorporation, with such immunities and restrictions as may seem just and as will subserve the interests aforesaid And as in duty bound will ever pray.
